

Jamie White

Board Candidate

Jamie White has been with Agricenter Showplace Arena since 2005 and has been the manager since 2011. Jamie has a B.S. in Agriculture from the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Jamie is a Member of The League of Agriculture & Equine Centers since back when the symposium was held in Murfreesboro. He serves on the Board of Directors for the League and is the Secretary as well as serves on the Awards and Membership Committee. Jamie has earned The Certified Manager of Equine Centers through the League.

Jamie has been involved with horses his whole life. He is the State Director of Tennessee IBRA (International Barrel Racing Association). He not only is Manager and Director of Events for the Showplace Arena but produces barrel races all over the state of Tennessee. Jamie also works ground for barrel races all over including Lucky Dog Productions, Better Barrel Races World Finals, IBRA National Finals, Pink Buckle Barrel and the Ruby Buckle Barrel Races. Jamie and his wife Katie are owners of JK Productions. Together they work, time, and secretary several of the American Qualifiers (steer wrestling, calf roping, and barrel race) for RFD-TV The American Rodeo.