

JENNIFER BEXLEY,
DIRECTOR OF GEORGIA INTERNATIONAL HORSE PARK

Jennifer Bexley has been the Director of the Georgia International Horse Park (GIHP), a City of Conyers, Georgia facility, since 2003. In her position as GIHP Director, Ms. Bexley oversees the general operations of the 1,400-acre world-class facility. The Georgia International Horse Park officially opened in 1995 and was built to host the 1996 Olympic Equestrian Events, the first ever Mountain Biking Competition and the final two events of the Modern Pentathlon. The facility includes six barns, 690 stalls, a Grand Prix Stadium, a covered arena, 10 outdoor arenas, a 30,000 square foot Exhibition Center, meeting facilities and special events fields.

Prior to her position at the Georgia International Horse Park, Ms. Bexley was director of Public Affairs and Marketing for the City of Conyers. She is a 1986 graduate of Emory University where she earned a bachelor's degree in business administration. Before joining the City of Conyers, she served as executive director of the (Georgia) State Board of Workers' Compensation. Prior to becoming executive director, she served as public affairs director and legislative lobbyist for that same agency. Ms. Bexley is a certified public accountant with vast experience in marketing and is knowledgeable of the equestrian industry. She was raised in Rockdale County on her family's horse farm.

Ms. Bexley has been a member of the League of Agriculture Equine and Centers since 2003. She was appointed to the Board in 2014, served as its Chairman from 2015 to 2022 and now serves as its Treasurer. She earned her Certified Manager of Equine Centers designation through that organization in 2014 and recertified in 2017, 2020 and 2023. She is currently a member of the American Horse Council and the Georgia Government Finance Officers Association. She is a 2003 graduate of Leadership Rockdale.
